

Supplement 3. Nomogram of the logistic regression model for the predicted probability of osteoporosis. The nomogram includes Pauwels angle, sex, and age—identified as the final significant predictors through stepwise selection. Each variable is assigned a point value, and the total score corresponds to the estimated probability of osteoporosis.